Weber County Democratic Ticket.
For delegates to the constitutional convention—Fred J. Kiesel, T. B. Lewis, J. F. McCarron, H. D. Spencer, James Taylor, Lerin Farr, David Evans, John Seaman, Soren Peterson, Thomas Maloney, John C. Manning.
For Collector—H. C. Gilbert.
For Recorder—John C. Taylor.
For Assessor—M. P. Brown.
For Treasurer—John Wright.
For Sheriff—Heber Wright.
For Clerk—Heber Wright.
For Attorney—J. W. Taylor.
For Surveyor—Washington Jenkins.
For Coroner—Joseph Hall.
For Selectmen—Nathaniel Montgomery, A. M. Faddis, J. M. Ferrin.

The political situation in this county remains about the same. Both parties are industrious to say the least, and on the whole it may be said that good work is being done by both committees. There is a tendency on the part of some Republicans to cut loose from the main body and go in to win. This feeling is said to prevail among the candidates. Such procedure on the part of either party is not to be commended. It is the duty of every man who accepts a nomination as the gift of his fellow-citizens to labor for the success of the whole ticket.

The Democratic nominees are all working harmoniously and will continue to do so until the close of the polls. The Herald would not be so hostile to any Democrat, no matter what position he may hold, if it should be discovered that he had any dealings with Republicans that would tend to advance the interests of any Democratic candidate at the expense of another.

No Republican candidate can do some things which Republicans are doing, or propose to do without sacrificing or attempting to sacrifice one or more of his colleagues on the ticket. It is proper and right that a candidate should receive votes from the opposition if they come unprompted or without placing the candidate under obligations which may prove injurious to any candidate on the same ticket with him. It often occurs that the conservative element in a political party may feel called upon to vote for some man on the opposition ticket because he is believed to be the best man for the place, and that is all right; but when a candidate or his friends say to the candidate or his friends on the opposite side that if they will vote for the man they will vote for a particular candidate on the other ticket as against the candidates on the same ticket, then it becomes a dishonest deal and is unfair and against the public welfare.

There is good reason to believe that what is termed trading tactics are to be adopted by Republicans in this territory from the territorial committee down. And what they would want to trade for is votes from the Democratic delegates. Democrats must be on their guard, because it is of more importance than most voters think that the Democrats should elect a majority of the Constitutional delegates. The only way to do this is to ignore the Republican propaganda, no matter how tempting. Stand firm for the success of the entire Democratic ticket from congressmen to constables.

Mr. Cannon's Canvass.
Mr. Cannon is headed this way and will doubtless devote some little time to a canvass of the county. He is a pleasing speaker and a polished politician and can entertain an audience with almost any subject upon which he may be pleased to make a discourse. He speaks as a Republican of the ultra type, and while he is liberal and broad-minded on many things, he is not liberal in politics. He will follow the old party line, and though he is in the ditch, he has such a high party and the doctrine as late down by party lines that he hangs on tenaciously to issues of the past supremacy confident that they are the living issues of the future.

He is so wedded to the theory of protection that, regardless of the fact that a new order of things obtains today and prosperity is dawning upon the American people, a fact which is patent to all, he cries out with a loud voice that there is danger ahead and everything is going to ruin, unless the theory of protection as he understands it is put in practice at once. The burden of his song is, who shall give work to the American workman; and ingeniously avoiding the fact that all the industrial armies, all the strikers, marched forth under a protective tariff, he attributes all the ills of the people to the present tariff law.

Mr. Cannon may be a brighter man than Mr. Reed, but that fact has not been demonstrated yet, and until it is, the presumption will be that on the tariff Mr. Reed is the better posted. Mr. Reed says the McKinley law was not made in the present condition of things and by inference, at least, admits that the present law is better, because he is not in favor of it. It is very likely that he should be in the power of Republicans to do so.

For almost five years workingmen in this country have been gradually losing ground, and the fact is that the Republican protective laws were on the statute books. Their condition did not begin to mend until another and better law was enacted, and from that very day the workingmen began to mend in mind, but because every man is not immediately prosperous, Mr. Cannon proclaims against the law. The fact that the downward tendency has been checked and the sun of prosperity has dawned is a great consolation to most men, for they know that in the near future they will be going up the hill.

Fourth District Court.
The Glesy case, which has agitated the public mind for some time past, closed today, when Judge Smith imposed a fine of $125, which was promptly paid. It is understood that the Glesy family intend leaving town in a few days, on their way to their destination.

The case which was on trial today was that of the United States against Charles Douglas, charged with fornication. This case was heard at the last term of court, and at that occasion the defendant was found guilty. A motion for a new trial was heard, and the motion was granted.

The trial was in progress when court adjourned until Monday morning. The following business was also transacted today:
Samuel J. Burr vs. Bertha Price et al., motion for new trial denied.
Jesse Barton vs. C. C. Richards et al., demurrer taken under advisement.
A. R. Marriott et al. vs. John Marriott, motion to set aside sale heretofore made sustained upon payment of all costs by defendant.

transferring pupils to that building. On the recommendation of the teachers' committee, it was agreed to hire another teacher to assist Messrs. Allison and Sweeney. Some other business was transacted and board adjourned for one week.

Notes.
The Ogden Caledonian society is perfecting arrangements for a concert celebration of Halloween, October 31. R. C. Easton, the popular tenor and as popular Scotsman, will participate in the programme.

A balloon ascension will be given by the Ogden Caledonian society tomorrow. At 4:30 and 8:30 the professor will make his aerial journey, and in the evening a pyrotechnic display will be given from the balloon.

The ballot boxes were today distributed to the various precincts. Owing to the election of delegates to the constitutional convention, two sets of ballot boxes will be necessary at this election, and a new set of boxes have been made.

Judge Henderson addressed an enthusiastic Democratic meeting at Five Points last night. The judge expounded the principles of Democracy in a masterly manner. His arguments were instructive and convincing, and the meeting will be productive of much good in the vicinity.

The statement made in Friday morning's Herald that Hon. C. C. Richards and J. L. Loar will speak at Slaterville on Wednesday evening, October 24, was an error. The Democratic party is not going to Slaterville to the good people of Riverton on that evening.

The lists of registered voters are now completed and have been hung up at the polling places in the various precincts for the examination of voters. The location of the polling places is as follows: First ward, 261 Twenty-fifth street; Second ward, Thomas' hall; Third ward, 205 Washington avenue; Fourth ward, 2316 Washington avenue; Fifth ward, 2518 Washington avenue.

The Standard last evening published a column and a half of the correspondence in the Glesy case. Some of the letters were of such a vile nature that their reading in open court was even suppressed, but nevertheless this thing which claims to be a newspaper dished up this disgraceful matter for the intellectual benefit of its readers. The Standard has always been recognized as a morbid organ, and this last effort only another evidence of its depravity.

ON THE ROCKS.
Discretionary Pool System Comes to Grief in Pittsburgh.
Pittsburgh, Penn., Oct. 20.—The discretionary pool system is on the rocks in Pittsburgh. These concerns have been springing up almost daily. It is estimated that they now hold representing $50,000 and $100,000 representing 50,000 investors. The clients are working men, domestic and farmers, and the prospect of securing 10 to 100 percent a month on their investments. For several days the local newspapers have been showing up the impossibility of the pools lasting and alleged responsibility of the managers. This morning there was a declaration of the rush of investors upon the discretionary pool known as the "Public Stock Exchange." The managers announced that they were the victims of a conspiracy of the banks and fell back upon the clause in the agreement by which they can require several days' notice of withdrawal.

A short time later the run began on the "Pittsburgh Syndicate." The investors were paid until noon when the managers announced that the concern would only pay during banking hours and would resume at 2 p. m. Monday. The panic is spreading and it is anticipated within three days almost every discretionary pool in the city will be wiped out.

The discretionary pool is a combination of syndicates, in which money is deposited to be invested by a broker according to discretion, in stocks, bonds, grains or provisions. Monthly dividends are declared out of the profits. A number of pools have been in operation several months and dividends declared regularly.

THE SUNDAY PAPER.
New York State Sabbath Association on the Warpath.
New York, Oct. 20.—The New York State Sabbath association held its third annual meeting last night in Brooklyn. Among the things that the association is trying to bring about is the abolition of all Sunday traffic, Sunday excursions and Sunday newspapers. The address on the Sunday newspaper was delivered by Dr. Theo. T. Cuyler, who announced himself a true friend of the daily press, which he held responsible for much of the good accomplished in the world, and thought that all Christians should unite in demanding the suppression of the Sunday papers.

"Why," asked he, "should the newspaper be allowed to carry on their business when all other trades are required to suspend on Sunday? There is no need for the Sunday press. We are not going very well without it in the olden days and we could again. While there is no reason why we should have the Sunday papers there are many reasons why we should be delivered from them, for the cleanest paper is a source of sin and other trades are not so much concerned with the Sabbath. Too many clergymen have to dig their parsons from under the avalanche of blanket sheet which every Sabbath are launched upon the public."

WRECKED AT SEA.
London, Oct. 20.—The British steamer Durham City, from Boston, for London, passed the Lizard at noon today, having on board the crew of the American schooner Alice T. Boardman.

Alice T. Boardman, water-logged and towed by Gloucester, Mass., on Saturday, was found on board today. The crew had been taken off by the steamer Durham City.

We are prepared to fill orders for coal, lump, stove, and nut. Yard, 221 West Third South St. Telephone No. 411. W. J. MONTGOMERY, Agent.

Twenty-seven million acres of land in India are devoted to rice culture.
